The Club's maintains that its absolute priority is to support Members cash flow by settling and paying claims, and by offering returns where vessels remain in lay up.

Simon Swallow, Chief Executive commented: “At the 2020 half year point, during these most unsettling times, never before has it been more important to pledge to our Members and their supporting brokers that in all that we do, we strive to ensure peace of mind. We are forever appreciative for their loyalty and trust, which makes us even more determined to provide the highest levels of service and stability of premiums.”
